Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Brian Young on 07/07/2004.

In claim 11, line 3, delete "and a segment store".

In claim 18, line 5, delete "a".

In claim 19, line 2; and claim 37, line 3: between "that" and "should", insert --the group of references--.

In claim 25, line 4, delete "the" and insert --a--.

In claim 36, line 6, before "grouped", delete "a".

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: a method of encoding data within a system, the method comprising: determining a set of cut points in input data, the input data including a sequence of symbols, wherein a cut point is determined using a fingerprint representation of a number of sequential symbols in the sequence of symbols; segmenting the input data as indicated by the set of cut points; for each segment, determining whether the segment is to be a referenced segment; for each referenced segment, replacing the segment data of the referenced segment with a reference label; for each referenced segment not already present in a persistent segment store, storing a reference binding in the persistent segment store, wherein a reference binding associates a referenced segment's data and its reference label; determining whether any sequence of segments is to be grouped as a reference group; for each reference group, replacing the references in the group with a group label; and for each reference group not already present in the persistent segment store, storing a group reference binding in the persistent segment store, wherein a group reference binding associates a reference group's references with its group label.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
